

Products of the Roman countryside

Find out about some of the typical products of the food and agriculture heritage of Rome and its province

Some numbers...

Total surface of Rome's province: 535,181 hectares
Cultivated agricultural surface: 247,000 hectares (47%), divided in:

- Cereals 21%
- Fodder 18%
- Meadows/pastures 23%
- Olive Trees 10%
- Vines 4%
- Vegetables 4%
- Other 20%

Some typical products of the Roman Countryside

Bread from Genzano

Bread from Lariano

Caseus Romae (Cheese)

Roman Ricotta

Roman Pecorino Cheese

Roman Lettuce

Roman Courgette

Carrots from Fiumicino

Roman Artichokes

